Dear Harold, Sept. 4, 1996

Sorry that I have not written sooner. Since coming back from our visit in late July it has been one thing after another -- home improvement, course preparation, another short vacation -- which has absorbed most of my time and I have not made time to even look through all the material I copied when I was there. Now that a new semester is finally underway, I am hoping to get some time to get back to JFK.

I heard from Dennis yesterday, via e-mail, that he had a good, productive visit. He said he will write again soon with more details. I am anxious to do some more work on our project, but everytime I sit down to begin I am often overwhelmed by the complexity of it all, even with all the reading and study, and your help over the past 10 years.

I am sorry we did not stop by on our way back, as we said we might. Leaving Fairfax was more difficult than we thought it would be because of our friends elderly Vietnamese parents who really appreciated the company, especially Hanh-Trang.

Enclosed are a couple pictures we took during our visit.

Take care; regards to Lillian. I will be in touch.

Best,

Gerry
